WELCOME

Nairobi hosted the 27th edition of BUILDEXPO KENYA 2026 from 3rd to 5th June at the Carnivore Exhibition Grounds. The premier exhibition was inaugurated by Mr. Joe Mutugu, CEO of the Affordable Housing Board, Ministry of Lands, Public Works, Housing and Urban Development (State Department for Housing and Urban Development).

This 27th edition of the International Trade Exhibition on Building & Construction, Mining, Lighting, Woodworking & Water Technologies was the biggest to date, with participation from over 44 countries. The event featured a dynamic showcase of the latest innovations in construction materials, mining equipment, advanced lighting solutions, woodworking machinery, and water technology systems — cementing its place as a global hub for industry leaders, innovators, and professionals to connect, explore opportunities, and drive progress in East Africa's rapidly growing infrastructure and construction sectors.

Kenya's construction industry continues to experience significant growth, fueled by large-scale infrastructure projects, affordable housing programs, and rising demand for urban development. Events like BUILDEXPO provide a vital meeting point for industry leaders, investors, developers, architects, engineers, and policy-makers to exchange ideas, build partnerships, and explore business opportunities.

With this milestone edition surpassing previous attendance records, BUILDEXPO KENYA further cements its position as the premier event for the building and construction industry in East Africa.
